Those who buy their clothes at Vicroy & Lee's say they are as comfortable as they can be, and their friends tell them that they look stylish and attractive, and another prominent feature is that the clothing obtained there is dirt cheap.

In the cases in the county court to recover back taxes from the Kentucky Central railroad and certain turnpikes in this county, the defendant's attorneys demurred to the petition. The demurrer was overruled and the plaintiffs ordered to appear at the next term of the court and list the property for taxation.

Alf. Burnett.

This genial gentleman, humorist and old time Maysville favorite, will give one of his entertainments at the opera house Saturday evening, Dec. 16th. He is ably assisted by the Great Remalia, an exponent of the violin, whose renditions of various and popular airs are seldom excelled, also Mr. Frank Fields, the human voiced bass viol, an artist of rare ability. Alf is a "whole team" himself, and needs no endorsements from us. Suffice to say those desiring a good laugh should not fail to attend. Seats secured at Taylor's news stand without extra charge.

How to Fry Oysters.

To make a success of frying oysters the cook ought not to be hurried; in fact, the cook who wishes or who hopes to excel must cultivate a calm, almost judicial mind. The oysters should be as large as you can conveniently picture, even if they remind you of Thackeray's remark after eating some in Boston—he felt, he said, he had swallowed a baby. Drain them from the liquor and lay them on a napkin to dry. Beat the yolks of only the requisite number of eggs, and add to them a little melted butter which you have clarified, or a little salad oil; season with a small pinch of cayenne pepper, and salt to your taste. Dip the oysters in this, then in the finest of cracker crumbs, and then in the batter again; if enough of the crumbs have not adhered to the oyster, dip it in them again; then fry in very hot fat; have enough fat in the pan to cover the oysters, there will be no need to turn them.

Accidental Insurance.

Monday's edition of the DAILY BULLETIN recorded the happening of about twenty-five accidents, seventeen of which were fatal, and the rest such as will cause several month's disability. The above is but a small per cent. of the number of accidents that happen throughout the country everywhere. If you are wise you will insure in the Traveler's Accident Insurance Company, without delay. An accident policy will not prevent an accident from happening, but it guarantees from five to twenty dollars per week, in case of disability, and a good, round sum in case of death, from accident. A $1,000 policy costs some, $5, a year; others $6; others $7.50; others $10; $3,000 accident tickets at 25 cents a day. For insurance, apply to M. F. MARSH, Court street.

State of Lewis at Large.

The depression caused by the late cold snap was alleviated by the arrival of Alf Burnett and his inimitable entertainment at the court house. One lady who is a regular church goer remarked that there was more religion in Alf Burnett's illustrations than in the churches. The rendering of Stanton's poem, "Moneyless Man," was charming and impressive. We have witnessed several failures and many blunders in delivering this grand poem, Burnett masters the situation.

Circuit court has drawn the largest number of persons to Vanceburg known for years. Sixty-eight cases on docket, seventy cases on ordinary docket, one hundred and twenty cases on equity docket. Greenup is represented by Frank Bennett, Judge Seaton, Edward Dulin, Thomas Painter, Judge Whitaker, from Mason, Judge Andrews, from Fleming, put in an appearance. Reports of the proceedings will appear in the DAILY BULLETIN. Judge Cole's charge to the grand jury was a splendid judicial delivery.
